PREFACE

IN issuing the 1936 edition of the Missions Directory the Publishers acknowledge with many thanks the assistance given by the Secretaries and Treasurers of the various Missions, the Associated Mission Treasurers in Shanghai, and especially by the Rev. C. L. Boynton, of the National Christian Council, whose advice and help have been invaluable. A new feature of the present issue—and one which it is believed will be found of considerable value—is the extended Index, wherein will be found the names and addresses of the executive officers of the various Missions in China.

Corrections and additions for the next issue will be greatly appreciated, and should be addressed to the MISSIONS DIRECTORY, North-China Daily News & Herald, Ltd., 17 The Bund, Shanghai.

MARCH 28, 1936.

THE CHINA CHRISTIAN YEAR BOOK

1934—1935

This nineteenth issue is invaluable to those who wish detailed and up-to-date material regarding conditions in China—its political life, changing social conditions, Chinese Communists, foreign problems, etc.; missions, religious life, education, etc.

Forty-four authors, both Chinese and Western, each one an authority, have packed this volume with a rich store of facts.

"For the nineteenth time the Christian forces in China issue a year-book, and once more it seems to me that a volume has been produced which is absolutely essential to anyone who wishes to understand what is happening in the Far East at present. I use the term 'essential' in its strictest sense; I honestly do not see how any commentator on Chinese affairs dare speak or write without taking the contents of this study into account. That applies to political and social as well as to religious comment. For this year-book takes in the entire range of Chinese life and affairs; it presents its study of religious interests—non-Christian as well as Christian—in relation to everything else that is happening in China just now."—Review by PAUL HUTCHINSON in "The Christian Century," January 1936.
